About the Book

Click Clack Peep is a beloved children's book written by Doreen Cronin and illustrated by Betsy Lewin. It was first published in 2000 and has since become a classic, selling over 2 million copies worldwide.

The book tells the story of a group of farm animals who are tired of being free downloaded around by the farmer. They decide to go on strike and refuse to work until their demands are met. The farmer is initially angry, but he eventually realizes that he needs the animals' help to run his farm.

Click Clack Peep is a fun and engaging story that teaches children about the importance of teamwork and compromise. It is also a great way to introduce children to the concept of labor unions.
