

Drinking: A Love Story

A Memoir

I've been in love with alcohol for as long as I can remember. It started with sneaking sips of my parents' beer when I was a kid. I loved the way it made me feel warm and relaxed. As I got older, my drinking escalated. I started drinking every day, and I would often get blackout drunk. My drinking was ruining my life. I was losing jobs, relationships, and my health. I knew I needed to stop, but I couldn't do it on my own.

Finally, I reached out for help. I went to rehab, and I started therapy. It was hard, but I did it. I've been sober for five years now, and I'm grateful for every day that I'm sober.

This book is my story. It's a story about my love affair with alcohol, and the lessons I learned along the way. I hope that my story will help others who are struggling with addiction. I want to show them that there is hope, and that recovery is possible.

Praise for Drinking

"A powerful and moving memoir about addiction and recovery. I couldn't put it down." — New York Times

"A must-read for anyone who has ever struggled with addiction. I highly recommend it." — USA Today

"A beautifully written and honest account of one woman's journey through addiction and recovery. I was inspired by her story." — People Magazine
