By Scoop Malinowski

Novak Djokovic is the world's top tennis player and one of the greatest of all time. He has won 23 Grand Slam titles, more than any other male player in history, and has been ranked world number one for a record 387 weeks. But behind the success and the accolades, there is a complex and driven individual who has faced and overcome numerous challenges to reach the top of the sport.

In this revealing and in-depth biography, Scoop Malinowski goes behind the scenes with Djokovic to explore the mind of a champion. He talks to Djokovic's family, friends, coaches, and rivals to paint a vivid portrait of a man who is both brilliant and flawed, driven and determined.

Malinowski follows Djokovic's journey from his early days as a promising young player in Serbia to his rise to the top of the tennis world. He reveals the secrets of Djokovic's success, including his relentless work ethic, his mental toughness, and his ability to adapt to any playing style.

But Malinowski also explores the challenges that Djokovic has faced, including injuries, personal setbacks, and the intense scrutiny that comes with being a public figure. He shows how Djokovic has overcome these obstacles to become one of the most successful and respected athletes in the world.

Facing Novak Djokovic is a fascinating and inspiring story of a champion who has achieved greatness through hard work, determination, and resilience. It is a must-read for any fan of tennis or anyone who wants to learn more about the mind of a winner.
