

From Straw Mattress Loveson: A Poignant Memoir of Resilience and Redemption

By Loveson Sako

From Straw Mattress Loveson is a powerful and moving memoir that traces the transformative journey of Loveson Sako, a young woman who escaped war-torn Sierra Leone and found her way to America. From humble beginnings in a refugee camp to a successful career as a writer and advocate, Loveson's story is an inspiration to those who have faced adversity.

Born into a life of poverty and violence, Loveson's childhood was marked by the horrors of war. She witnessed the death of her father and the destruction of her home, and was forced to flee her country with her family. After spending years in a refugee camp, Loveson was finally granted asylum in the United States.
