Thanksgiving is a time to celebrate family, friends, and all the good things in our lives. It's also a time to learn about the history of this special holiday.

The First Thanksgiving of 1621 was a time of great change and celebration. The Pilgrims had just arrived in the New World, and they were struggling to survive. They were helped by the Native Americans, who taught them how to grow crops and how to hunt for food. In return, the Pilgrims shared their knowledge of the Bible and European culture.

The First Thanksgiving was a way to celebrate the friendship between the Pilgrims and the Native Americans. It was also a time to give thanks for the harvest and for all the good things in their lives.
