The book tells the story of Mike Michalowicz, a struggling entrepreneur who was down on his luck. He had tried several businesses, but none of them had succeeded.

One day, Mike was sitting on the toilet when he had an idea. He realized that toilet paper was a necessity that everyone used. He also realized that there was a lot of room for improvement in the toilet paper market.

Mike decided to start a toilet paper company. He called his company "Roll With It."

Mike started out small. He bought a used toilet paper machine and set it up in his garage. He then started selling toilet paper to local businesses.

Mike's business quickly grew. He soon had to move to a larger facility. He also started selling his toilet paper to major retailers.

Today, Roll With It is one of the leading toilet paper companies in the United States. Mike has become a multi-millionaire and a successful entrepreneur.

The Toilet Paper Entrepreneur is a story of hope and inspiration. It shows that anyone can achieve success, even if they start with nothing.
